Norris Public Power District General Manager Retirement

Kevin Pollard, General Manager and CEO, of the Norris Public Power District retired on January 31, 2012 after 28 years of service to the Norris District. Mr. Pollard was hired by the Norris District in 1984 as a Senior Engineer, was promoted to the Assistant General Manager of Engineering in 1987 and was further promoted to the position of General Manager and CEO of the Norris District in 2004.

The Norris Public Power District Board of Directors selected Jay Schulz as the interim General Manager of the Norris District until such time that a new General Manager is hired. Mr. Schulz has worked for the Norris District for the past 40 years and held the position of Engineering Systems Manager prior to his appointment as the Interim General Manager and CEO of the Norris District.

On behalf of the employees and the Norris Public Power District Board of Directors, we wish Mr. Pollard the best of luck during his retirement and thank him for his dedication to the Norris District over the past 28 years.
